4. [REDACTED] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him the final letter forwarded to Representative Michael J. Harrington (D., Mass.). Slatinshek asked that I give a copy of the letter and the original correspondence directly to Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, upon his return to the city later in the week. He told me also that final determinations have not been made by Chairman Hebert concerning the organization of the Committee. Final organization of the Committee will probably not take place until after the Lincoln Day recess.

I briefed Slatinshek on the following current intelligence items:
Soviet SS-11 ICBM, RAM-H, and Berbera, [REDACTED]
ChiCom Planar Array radar and military posture on the Soviet border.

5. [REDACTED] Met with Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who told me that the Chairman plans formal organization of the Appropriations Committee this week. He has made no determination as yet, however, with regard to the Special Group and the handling of the CIA and intelligence community budgets.

I briefed Preston on the following current intelligence items:
Soviet SS-11 ICBM, RAM-H, and Berbera, [REDACTED]
ChiCom Planar Array radar and military posture on the Soviet border.

6. [REDACTED] Met with Garner J. Cline, Counsel, House Judiciary Committee, who told me that the Committee will have its formal Committee organizational meeting on Wednesday. So far he sees few changes in the full Committee posture with the ascendancy of Representative Peter J. Rodino to the Chairmanship. Representatives Rodino and Celler, the long-time Chairman of the Committee, had worked very closely together over the past several years.
